

Joy to the World!

Welcome! We are so happy you have come to worship today! Someone has described worship as “a joyful dialogue with God.” God speaks to us in his Word, and we speak to him in praise and prayer. May God richly bless you through this “joyful dialogue” today!

Restrooms – The restrooms are located straight ahead as you enter the building. You will also find restrooms in the lower level gathering space at the end of the classrooms on the right side before the exit doors.

Parent’s Room – The sound of children in the house of the Lord is music to our ears! However there is also a parent room to the right just before you enter the sanctuary if your little one needs a moment. It is accessed as you exit the sanctuary, on the left, next to the seats reserved for families with small children.

Assistance Getting Around – There is a walker and a wheelchair available in the fellowship hall. Anyone who needs them is welcome to use them. Please speak to an usher if you need help accessing them.

Offering Message – An offering will be gathered in the service today. These offerings support the Gospel ministry of Lord of Love locally, and also the global mission of the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod. Visitors need not feel obligated to give, but certainly may if you wish.

Holy Communion is celebrated today. Mindful of the Scriptural teaching concerning church fellowship, we practice close (or closed) communion. Communicant members of this congregation, or another congregation of the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod (or the Evangelical Lutheran Synod), are encouraged to commune this morning. Guests are asked to speak with our pastor, before the service, if they wish to commune.

Text: James Montgomery, 1771–1854, abr., alt.
Tune: REGENT SQUARE (87 87 87) Henry T. Smart, 1813–79.

M: Sing to the LORD a new song, for he has done marvelous things;

C: his right hand and his holy arm have worked salvation for him.

M: The LORD has made his salvation known and revealed his righteousness to the nations.

C: He has remembered his love and his faithfulness to Israel;

M: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

C: Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth, burst into jubilant song with music;

M: make music to the LORD with the harp, with the harp and the sound of singing,

C: with trumpets and the blast of the ram's horn— shout for joy before the LORD, the King.

M: Let the sea resound, and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it.

C: Let the rivers clap their hands, let the mountains sing together for joy;

M: let them sing before the LORD, for he comes to judge the earth.

C: He will judge the world in righteousness and the peoples with equity.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

M: Christ came that we might be reconciled to God through him. Let us, therefore, confess our sins and hear again the good news of sins forgiven.

M and C: (CW 27:1-2, spoken)

O Jesus, Lamb of God, you are

My comfort and my guiding star;

I come, a sinner, trustingly

And bring my many sins with me.

O Lord, my sin indeed is great;
I groan beneath the dreadful weight.
Be merciful to me, I pray;
Take guilt and punishment away.

(Moment of silent prayer to confess specific sin and guilt that may especially be troubling and peace-robbing)

M: (CW 53:3-4, spoken)

Oh, then, rejoice that through his Son
God is with sinners now at one;
Made like yourselves of flesh and blood,
Your brother is th'eternal God.

What harm can sin and death then do?
The true God now abides with you.
Let hell and Satan storm and rave,
Christ is your brother – you are safe.

PRAYER OF THE DAY FOR THE FESTIVAL

M: Almighty God, grant that the birth of your one and only Son in the flesh may set us free from our old bondage under the yoke of sin; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

THE WORD OF GOD FOR THE FESTIVAL

FIRST LESSON

Exodus 33:18-23; 34:5-7

¹⁸ Then Moses said, "Please show me your glory."

¹⁹ The LORD said, "I will make all my goodness pass in front of you, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD in your presence. I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and I will show mercy to whom I will show mercy." ²⁰ He said, "You cannot see my face, for no human may see me and live."

²¹ The LORD also said, "Look, there is a place next to me, where you shall stand on the rock. ²² It will happen that, while my glory passes by, I will put you in a crevice in the rock. I will cover you with my hand until I have passed by. ²³ Then I will take away my hand, and you will see my back. But my face will not be seen."

⁵ The LORD came down in the cloud. He took his stand there with Moses and proclaimed the name of the LORD. ⁶ The LORD passed by in front of him and proclaimed: "The LORD, the LORD, the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, and overflowing with mercy and truth, ⁷ maintaining mercy for thousands, forgiving guilt and rebellion and sin. He will by no means clear the guilty. He calls their children and their children's children to account for the guilt of the fathers, even to the third and the fourth generation."

HYMN

CW 58: See in Yonder Manger Low

1 See in yon-der man-ger low, Born for us on earth be-low,
 2 Lo, with-in a sta-ble lies He who built the star-ry skies,
 3 Sa-cred In-fant, all di-vine, What a ten-der love was thine,
 4 Teach, oh, teach us, ho-ly Child, By thy face so meek and mild,

See— the gen-tle Lamb ap-pears, Prom-ised from e-ter-nal years.
 He who, throned in height sub-lime, Sits a-mid the cher-u-bim.
 Thus to come from high-est bliss Down to such a world as this.
 Teach us to re-sem-ble thee In thy sweet hu-mil-i-ty.

Refrain

Hail the ev-er bless-ed morn; Hail re-demp-tion's hap-py dawn;

Sing through all Je-ru-sa-lem, "Christ is born in Beth-le-hem!"

Text: Edward Caswall, 1814–78, alt.

Tune: HUMILITY (77 77 with Refrain) John Gross, 1800–80.

³¹ What then will we say about these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? ³² Indeed, he who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also graciously give us all things along with him?

Text: African-American spiritual, c. 19th century, refrain; John W. Work, 1872–1925, stanzas, alt.
 Tune: GO, TELL IT (78 76 76 76) African-American spiritual, c. 19th century, alt.

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was with God in the beginning. 3 Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made. 4 In him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. 6 There was a man sent from God whose name was John. 7 He came as a witness to testify concerning that light, so that through him all might believe. 8 He himself was not the light; he came only as a witness to the light. 9 The true light that gives light to everyone was coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognize him. 11 He came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him. 12 Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God - 13 children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God. 14 The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth. 15 John testified about him. He cried out, "This was the one I spoke about when I said, 'The one coming after me outranks me because he existed before me.'" 16 For out of his fullness we have all received grace upon grace. 17 For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. 18 No one has ever seen God. The only-begotten Son, who is close to the Father's side, has made him known.

HYMN

CW 68: Away in a Manger

The lit - tle Lord Je - sus laid down his sweet head.

MEDITATION ON 1 TIMOTHY 3:16

"We confess, the mystery of our devotion is great: He was manifest in flesh."

CONFESSION OF FAITH

excerpt from the Athanasian Creed

Now this is the true Christian faith: We believe and confess that our Lord Jesus Christ, God's Son, is both God and man. He is God, eternally begotten from the nature of the Father, and he is man, born in time from the nature of his mother, fully God, fully man, with rational soul and human flesh, equal to the Father as to his deity, less than the Father as to his humanity; and though he is both God and Man, Christ is not two persons but one, one, not by changing the deity into flesh, but by taking the humanity into God; one, indeed, not by mixture of the natures, but by unity in one person; for just as the rational soul and flesh are one human being, so God and man are one Christ. He suffered for our salvation, descended into hell, rose the third day from the dead. He ascended into heaven, is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty, and from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

PRAYER OF THE CHURCH FOR CHRISTMAS DAY

In peace, let us pray to the Lord: Lord, have mercy.

For all who celebrate the incarnation, that the knowledge that their God reigns would cause them to lift up their voices and sing for joy, now and throughout the Church Year, let us pray to the Lord: Lord, have mercy.

For those who publish peace and bring good news of happiness in Christ, that they would be kept faithful to declare his reign; and for all missionaries at home and abroad, that all the ends of the earth may see his salvation, let us pray to the Lord: Lord, have mercy.

For confidence to tell the joyful message of our Savior, just as Mary, Joseph and common shepherds first believed and proclaimed his incarnation, that the Holy Spirit may work the miracle of faith as he wills, let us pray to the Lord: Lord, have mercy.

For all who administer and judge our laws in this land and for its citizens, that authority would be rightly honored and that we would be preserved from rulers who spurn God's calling to serve justly, show hostility to his truth or persecute his Church, let us pray to the Lord: Lord, have mercy.

For those who suffer sickness in mind or body, for the homebound and for all who ask our prayers, that God would grant them healing, peace, patience and faith that endures, let us pray to the Lord: Lord, have mercy.

In thanksgiving for the believers who have gone before us, especially those who have been with us during Christmases past and now live with Christ, that we may be confident in his promise of resurrection and eternal life and at last join them in his presence when his kingdom comes, let us pray to the Lord: Lord, have mercy.

Hear us, O Lord, for the sake of your Son, the Word become flesh, the Savior of the nations, Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, ever one God.
Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

C: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

BLESSING

M: May he who by his incarnation gathered into one things earthly and heavenly, fill us with such joy that comes with the knowledge of the forgiveness of sins and the hope of eternal life. And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you always.

C: Amen.
